PAPER 2: READING AND WRITING

SECTION A: Reading comprehension

TEST 1

When Esther left school at the age of sixteen, her aunt Flory gave her £500 for her birthday. Most of Esther's friends decided to go to college, but Esther used her aunt's money to start her own business. She bought fruit, sugar and some glass jars and began making her own jam. She sold the jam for £1 a jar to her friends and she soon doubled her aunt's £500.

At first, her parents didn't want Esther to spend her time making jam and they thought that she should study instead. They hoped that one day she would be a teacher or a doctor. But Esther didn't listen to them. She just kept on making jam. After a few months, she started selling it to the local market. Then she started making orange juice. She sold this to a school where one of her friends worked.

After two years, her business was very large and her parents were very pleased with her. She made all kinds of food which she sold to shops and supermarkets. She was so busy that she had to get some people to work for her.

23/ Why did Aunt Flory give Esther some money?

TEST 2

ORANGES

Everybody loves oranges. They are sweet and juicy. They are in sections so it is easy to eat them. Some oranges do not have any seeds. Some have a thick skin and some have a thin skin. The orange tree is beautiful. It has a lot of shiny green leaves. The small white flowers smell very sweet. An orange tree has flowers and fruit at the same time.

There were orange trees twenty million years ago. The oranges were very small, not like the ones today. The orange tree probably came from China. Many different kinds of wild oranges grow there today. Chinese started to raise orange trees around 2400 B.C. Chinese art has lovely old pictures of oranges and orange trees. Farmers in other parts of Asia and the Middle East learned to raise oranges from the Chinese. Then they taught Europeans. The Spanish planted orange trees in the New World (North and South America). They took them to Florida first. Oranges are a very important crop in Florida today.

“Orange” is both a fruit and a color. The color of oranges is so beautiful that in English we use the name of the fruit for the color.

23/ Some oranges do not have _____.

- A. leaves
- C. flowers

- B. fruit
- D. seeds

24/ Orange leaves are _____.

- B. thin
- D. shiny

27/ Europeans learned to plant orange trees from farmers in _____.

- A. the Middle East and Asia
- C. China

- B. Florida
- D. Spain

TEST 3

Sadly, we know that many creatures are truly extinct. Some animals, like the unicorn, probably never even existed, except in mythology. Others, like the dodo bird, really did exist, but became extinct quite recently. Hence the popular English expression ‘dead as a dodo’. Because of hunting and poor conservation, it is certain that more animals than ever are in danger of extinction. Endangered species include the elephants, the giraffes, and even the lions and the rhinoceros.

However, some animals which we thought were extinct may not be after all. From Canada to New Zealand, Mexico to Tibet and the Congo to the Pacific Ocean, there have been many reports of strange creatures which no one has ever seen before. There have also been reports about animals that scientists thought had disappeared.

There are stories of enormous lizards, huge sharks, wild snowmen, giant crocodiles, men that look like apes and even flying reptiles. Perhaps some of these creatures are in fact the animals that we once thought were extinct.

- 23/ The word 'sadly' in line 1 is closest in meaning to _____.
 A. happily B. extremely C. unusually D. unfortunately
- 24/ The unicorn _____.
 A. is truly extinct. C. may never have existed.

- 25/ Lions and rhinos _____.
 A. are not in danger of extinction. C. never have existed
 B. may be in danger of extinction. D. are in danger of extinction.
- 26/ Reports of 'extinct' creatures have come _____.
 A. from many different parts of the world. C. mainly from Asia.
 B. mainly from America. D. mainly from Australia.
- 27/ The word 'Perhaps' in line 11 is closest in meaning to _____.
 A. Reports C. Always
 B. Maybe D. Sometimes

TEST 4.

Nicola Peet left school at eighteen, went to college and then worked at a local airport. After nine months, she went to work for Saudi Arabian Airlines and then she joined British Airways as an air-hostess. Four years later, she got her present job as a manager. This is what she told us about her job:

'My office is at Heathrow Airport, but I spend 60% of my time in the air. I teach air-hostesses and help them with any problems. I also go to lots of meetings. My hours are usually from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. but sometimes I work from 1 a.m to 9 p.m. At work, the first thing I do is check plane times on my computer and then I speak with some of the air-hostesses.

Sometimes I go on long flights to check how the air-hostesses are doing. That's my favorite part of the job, but I like office work, too. Traveling can be hard work. When I get back from a long journey, all I can do is eat something and then go to bed! I don't earn much money, but I'm happy with British Airways and want to stay there and continue to travel.'

- 23/ When Nicola first started working for British Airways, she was _____.
